They must not be absent themselves from their rooms, during the hours of study, especially in the evening, except by permission from one of the Faculty; and a close attention will be paid to the habits of the Students, that good morals may be cultivated and preserved.

PUBLIC WORSHIP. The Students will be required to attend pub-lic worship, in this City, both morning and af-ternoon; and Monitors for the several Churches, will make returns of all absentees, who will give an account of their absence to the Princi-The Rull will be called, also, before the paf. The Roll will be called, also, before the daily devotions at the College. No Student will, at any time, leave the City, without expressleave obtained from the Principal. That the public may rest assured of the prevalence of no particular sectarian influence at this College, the following clause is extracted from the Chir-ters with the letter and spirit of which, the Officers of instruction, will invariably comply. The second section of the thirty seventh chapter of the laws of Maryland, required, that "the said College shall be founded and maintained forever, upon a most liberal plan, for the benefit of youth of every religious denomination, who shall be freely admitted to equal privileges and advantages of education, and to all ministration, de bonis non, on the Personal to their merit, without requiring or enforcing. to their merit, without requiring or enforcing any religious or civil test, or urging their attendance upon any particular religious wor-ship or service, other than what they have been educated in, or have the consent and approbation of their parents or guardians to attend."

A record of all deficiencies at College exercises will be kept, and sent to each parent or guardian, at the close of every term. And. whenever a Student shall be found failing to secure the end for which he will have been placed at the College, he may be sent home priwately, except in cases of a misdemeanour, or off-ince against the laws, when he shall be punished by the ordinary penalties. By the adoption of a kind and parental demeanour, on the part of the Officers, it is hoped that such extreme cases will be avoided; and from the extreme cases will be avoided; and from the total case of the control of the officers of the control of the said decessed, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the vouclers thereof. it is believed, that few places promise this immunity, in a higher degree, than the City of Annapolis. Its population is not large—the situation is central—its healthfulness, is surpassed by that of no place in the Southern States—access to the College, from all parts of the Union, by which parents would wish to hold communication with their sons, is most frequent and easy, and the expenses of living are comparation. frequent and easy, and the expenses of living are comparatively small. Annapolisis the Seat of the Government of the State; and the time of the Annual Commencements, which hap-pens during the Session of the Legislature, af-fords a high incentive to young men, to distinguish themselves, by their literary performances

Candidates for any standing in the College, will be required to bring from their teachers, testimonials of good moral character; and, in no case, will a Student be received from any other College, to the same standing in this, unless he shall bring, from the President, or other authority of such College, a certificate of his honorable dimission.
